Hello, writers!

We welcome conference registration payments by postal check. All you need to do is print out this form, fill it out, and mail it to us along with your check (or money order) payment. Make your check payable to Writing Day Workshops, and mail it to Writing Day Workshops, P.O. Box 42244, Cincinnati, OH 45242.

If you need to see a list of our upcoming conferences, find it here:

Please note that base registration pricing for events varies from $149-199 for different events, so you will have to check that base pricing on your desired event website. Once you know that starting cost, you can then add on optional elements like pitches or critiques, to determine your final cost total.
